MISSIONARY HAS TO REMAIN HERE

Miss Emma Halderman Unable to Return to Egypt Owing to War Conditions.

Miss M. Emma Halderman, of Terre Haute, Ind., returned missionary from Egypt, is in the city in the interest of foreign missionary work and requests the publication of the following letter of explanation regarding the trip to Egypt she had planned last fall:

I wish to announce to the public, that, owing to war conditions and blockaded water ways, I was unable to return to Egypt, as heretofore announced. However, I still retain hopes of making the voyage at a later date.

Should I be unable to do so, the money that was contributed for this purpose will be returned to those who desire it, by either calling or writing 450 Mechanic street, city. Otherwise, every cent of it will be used in the foreign mission work, which is still maintained, or for my transportation, should the way open for me.

Again thanking you for the offering, may God bless and reward every giver.

M. EMMA HALDERMAN.

PETTIT APPOINTED

Assistant National Bank Examiner for District near Baltimore, Md.

Friends of Earl N. Pettit, of the clerical force of the Merchants National Bank, are congratulating him over receiving an appointment as assistant national bank examiner for a district embracing Maryland and Virginia counties near Baltimore. He will have his headquarters in Baltimore and will take up his new duties February 1.

Mr. Pettit will be assistant to K. B. Cecil, who until a few weeks ago was national bank examiner with headquarters at Huntington, this state, but who was transferred to the district near Baltimore.

DECISION RESERVED.

James Hyde, colored, of Point Comfort, was tried in Magistrate Jackson V. Carter's court Wednesday evening on a charge of assaulting and beating Charles H. Ivory, also colored, of the same suburb. After hearing the evidence Magistrate Carter asked for time to consider the evidence and said he would return a verdict Thursday evening.

HONOR ROLL

Place is Won by C. W. Reed for West Virginia Insurance.

C. W. Reed, district manager for the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company in northern West Virginia, is advised by the home office of the company that West Virginia under his leadership won over the District of Columbia in the agency contest for the year 1915.

Mr. Reed led both agencies in volume of personal written business, and secured seventh place on the company's annual honor roll which includes 150 leading writers in the United States.

LEAP YEAR SOCIAL.

A leap year social will be given by the ladies of the Progressive Board of the African Methodist Episcopal church Friday at the residence of Mrs. G. L. Bigelow, 832 Mechanic street. All ladies are invited to go and take the gentlemen.

MANY COURT CASES.

BERLIN, Jan. 27.—Reports from Dutch sources say that the number of undecided cases before the British prize courts is so great that if peace were concluded at the present time the court would be occupied for two years.

THREE CHARTERS

Are Issued to New Corporations by the Secretary of the State.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 27.—With an authorized capital of $100,000 the Gilbert Creek Superior Coal Company has been chartered here. It will operate at Omar, Logan county. The incorporators, all of Omar, are S. A. Wood, Alex. Lester, William T. Jones, W. H. Dower and J. A. Kelly.

The Buffalo Creek Superior Coal Company, with an authorized capital of $50,000 was incorporated by the same men and will operate in the same county.

The Ebana Oil Company, of Washington, Pa., has been incorporated by the same men and will operate in the same county.

The Ebana Oil Company, of Washington, Pa., was incorporated with an authorized capital of $50,000. The company will operate outside of West Virginia. The incorporators are M. F. Whitehill, M. W. Larkin, T. J. Burns, Charles J. Heasley and W. M. Smith, all of Charleston.

MRS. BYRD ILL.

Mrs. Percy Byrd is ill in her home in the Raymond court. She is threatened with lagrippe.

DOCTOR'S WIFE

Leaves Him at Wolf Summit and Goes Away with Another Man.

PARKERSBURG, Jan. 27.—Complaining to federal authorities here that his wife and another man had disappeared from their home and stating that he desired to have them arrested on a white slave charge, if possible, Dr. White, of Wolf Summit, near Charlestown, stated Wednesday on his arrival here that he would go with the officers anywhere in order to identify the couple.

Robert S. Judge, here making an investigation in the case of the Hoblitzell's who were drowned on the Kanawha, gave the physician an audience and after learning the facts in the case promised to give it his attention at once. It was said last night that the man and the physician's wife had left several days ago and were suspected of coming in this direction.

BROTHER SERIOUSLY ILL.

Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn were called to New Martinsville, Thursday morning by the serious illness of Mr. Quinn's brother, Andrew Quinn, of that city, who is in a critical condition. Mr. Quinn's brother is suffering with dropsy.

For 75c—Next Week Only This $2.50 Aluminum Cooker

Mother's Oats Week

Next week in this city is Mother's Oats week. All the leading grocers will make big displays, featuring this Cooker.

One object is to supply present users of these exquisite flakes the best way known to cook them.

Another object is to win thousands of new users to this delicious form of oat food.

So for one week, at enormous expense, we make this offer to buyers of five packages of standard size or two packages of large size. Any grocer will supply you. And the grocers named below will make big displays, featuring this Cooker.

Don't miss this chance to get this Cooker at one-third retail value. The chance will never occur again.

Other Valuable Premiums

In each package of Mother's Oats you will find a coupon. These coupons have an average worth of 2c each in merchandise. So you really get 12c in merchandise for each 10c you spend for Mother's Oats. The five packages you buy to get the Cooker will give you five coupons to start with.

We will send you our full premium list, showing 250 articles which everybody wants. Some are for men, some for women, some for boys and girls. Some may be had for as low as nine coupons.

These are all in addition to our Cooker offer. And these 250 premiums are for coupons only. No need to send any cash.

Your Only Chance

This aluminum double Cooker is extra large and heavy. It is made to our order, and is the best cereal Cooker known. If sold at retail it would cost at least $2.50.

Next Week's Offer

For next week only we make this offer to every home in this city, but no longer.

On each Mother's Oats package appears a picture of one of our mills. Send us the mill pictures from five Mother's Oats packages standard size or two packages large size. You can peel them off—no need to cut the package.

Address Mother's Oats, 1708 Railway Exchange, Chicago

These Grocers Next Week Feature the Mother's Cooker

Send us 75c, check or money order preferred, with these pictures and we will mail this Cooker to you by parcel post prepaid. Thus by buying five packages standard size or two packages large size next week you get this $2.50 Cooker for 75c, and you get coupons good on other premiums.

This offer is good for next week only. No requests will be honored unless mailed next week.

We urge you to accept it.
